FOREWORD

As we travel down the Main Street of Life, our journey will not always be smooth or easy; the path will not be guarded by endless rows of elms of security and guidance;
the road will not be paved with perpetual success.

Our course will sometimes be rough and unsure. We must, therefore, follow the path carefully, making steady progress toward our goals of knowledge, wisdom, and happiness.
The routes to our desired ends will be different; we must depart and go our separate ways. This poem is significant to us.

At the Crossroads

"You to the left and to the right,
For the ways of men must sever—
And it well may be for a day or a night,
And it well may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part
(For our ways are past from knowing),
A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart
On the ways we all are going!
Here's luck!
For we know not where we are going."

DEDICATION

Left to right, sitting: Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Morse. Standing: Mr. Howard, Mr. Bryant.

To Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Morse, Mr. Howard, Mr. Bryant, and Mr. Delaney, our former advisor, who have as our teachers instructed us in our studies, inspired us to learn and to create, encouraged us to set high goals and to work hard to attain them; who have as our advisors set fine examples for us, guided us in growing morally and in becoming more mature individuals, helped us develop traits of sincerity, responsibility, dependability, and integrity, aided us in our undertakings, consoled us in our failures, and rejoiced with us in our accomplishments; who have as our friends helped us when we were in need, sacrificed personal pleasures for our benefit, remained patient with us, and always presented a cheerful optimistic nature—we the Class of 1963 do proudly dedicate this book, the "Sagitta."

knowing a thing, but also a certain art in teaching it."*

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

FRESHMAN CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

At last in the fall of September, 1959, we officially became a part of the high school, but, as freshmen, we were again at the bottom of the ladder. Students from East Granby joined our class.

Early in the year we elected class officers as follows:

President, Michael Balch; Vice - President, Terry Hartmann; Secretary, Jane Beneski; Treasurer, Julius Drenzek.

BUTTON, BUTTONS

As freshmen we undertook our first money-making project. Remember how we sold white buttons featuring the letters SUFFIELD in blue; The buttons were very appropriate during the basketball season.

OLDIES BUT GOODIES

One of the most successful record hops in the history of the school was the Oldies But Goodies hop held by our class, during our freshman year. Besides the fact that everyone had a good time, it helped to boost our treasury.

ELECTIONS HELD BY SOPHOMORES

(Special, September, 1960) President, Michael Balch; Vice President, John Foley; Secretary, Carol Biggerstaff; Treasurer, Julius Drenzek.

RINGS ARRIVE

The highlight of our sophomore year came in October when we received our very distinctive class rings.

WILDCAT SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1961 soccer squad defeated Hale-Ray (1-0) after a tooth and nail battle. It was the first time in 57 games that Hale-Ray had been beaten and the first soccer state championship for Suffield. We are proud to have had Allan Tallis, Peter Gaughan, Terry Hartmann and Mike Balch on the team. Ah, the sweetness of victory!

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

(Special, September, 1961) President, John Foley; Vice President, Chris Kalb; Secretary, Jane Beneski; Treasurer, Sandy Hinckley.

U. N. TRIP

On December 1, 1961, our junior year was highlighted by an all day trip to the United Nations in New York. Not only was this trip educational but also fun.

JUNIOR CLASS HOLDS CAR-WASH and FOOD SALE

To boost our treasury in our junior year we held a car wash and food sale. Remember washing cars in the rain! Or, wait a minute, just how did you get all wet? With the help of our food sale, the day was a success.

WE COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT

Remember all the fun we had preparing for the junior prom in Julius' cellar, while making all those beautiful roses.

"Moonlight and Roses," our theme emphasized a lovely spring garden featuring a pond in the center with the wooden bridge over it. We even had live goldfish! Eddie Walenta and his orchestra chose Ann Grabowski queen. The court attendants were Carol Biggerstaff, Jane Beneski, Mary Crocker, Mary Vasilocosta, Chris Kalb, Judy Meier, Betsy Nash, and Ellen Brockett. What a memorable occasion!

SENIORS ON THE STAGE

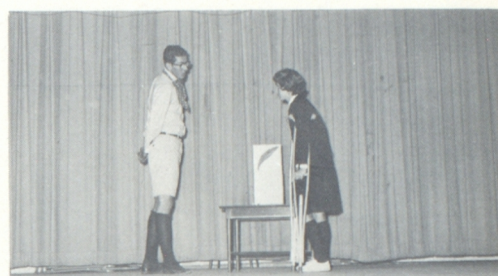

The Wolf Tied Grandma Up.

Little Red Feather Returned To Find Mr. Wolf.

Poor Little Rich Boy Finally Gave To The Needy.

Classmates of Poor Little Rich Boy.

The students were well entertained.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The glee club sang.

The annual Christmas Concert brought both the warmth and joy of the season to everyone attending. Under the wonderful directions of Mr. Pacocha and Mr. Tanguay, the glee club and the band gave very fine performances.

The band played.

The cheerleaders posed as reindeer.

The audience enjoyed the concert immensely.

... While visions of candy canes danced in their wee little heads.

SENIORS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

This time I'll try for the apple!

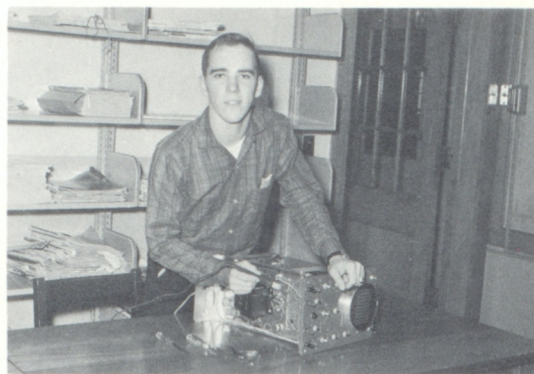

I can think of more ways to get out of "Problems" and into other problems.

Let's try that again.

Down! Jo-Ann Down!

These oscilloscopes are really getting out of hand!

SCHOOL DAYS,

Motorcycle? Bicycle? Tricycle!!

THOSE DEAR OLD

I . . . think . . . we'd . . . better . . . rewind . . . it!

This war is inevitable.

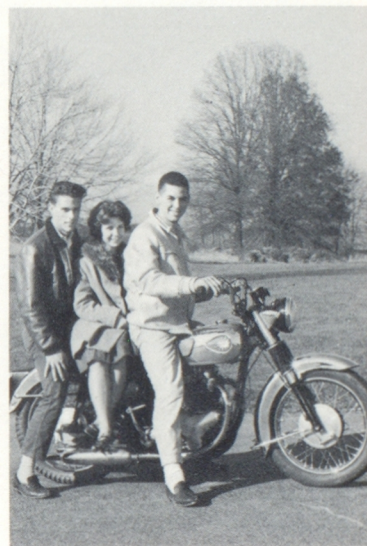

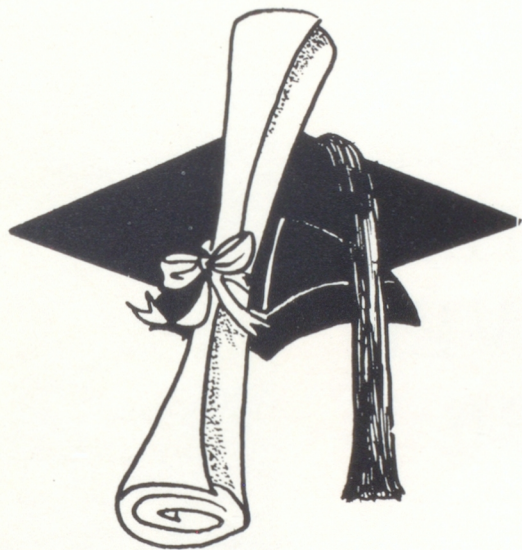

Now if we only had a little water!

. . . And Linus has his blanket!

SCHOOL DAYS

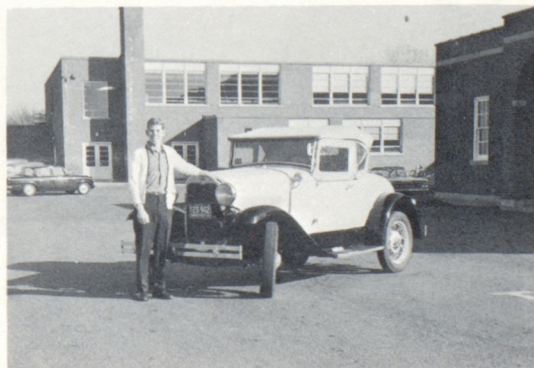

Three is a crowd.

GOLDEN RULE DAYS

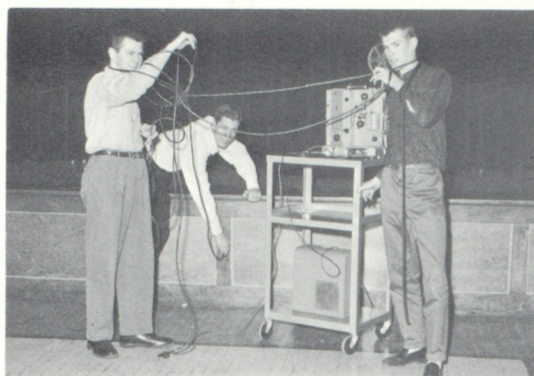

They said it couldn't be done.

All from a little car kit!

Is that the 8:10 bell already?

Is this the way it goes, Mr. Lester?

OUR CRAZY

Oh, oh! Wrong address!

TIMES WILL NEVER BE

A 1 and a 2 and a 3 . . .

FORGOTTEN

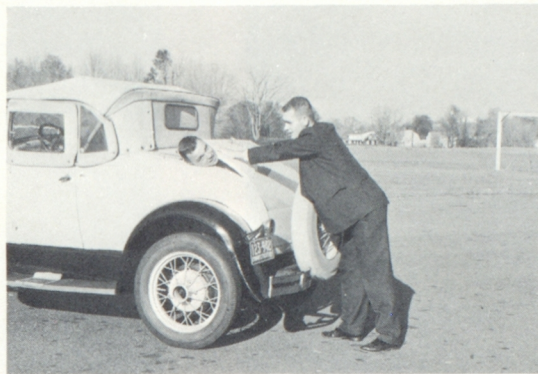

Say, what do you get for number 7?

This is real "horse" power!

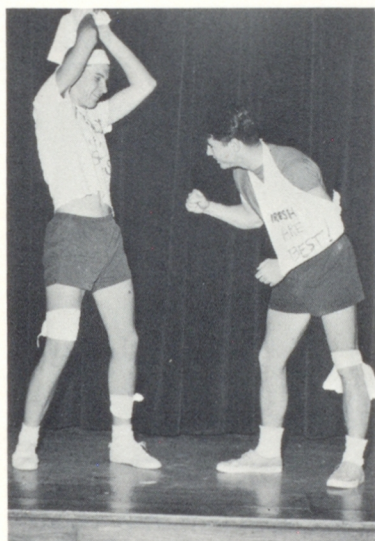

Do you mean we have to stay like this for three nights?

I really didn't mean it, Roger!

MEMORIES

Fight to the finish!

OF SCHOOL WILL BE

Heigh-Ho, Silver?

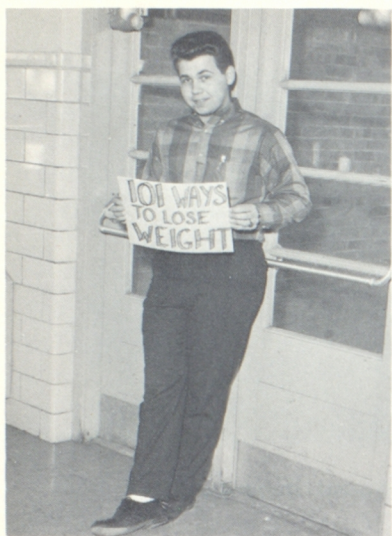

TREASURED

Miss Klim, what came between "Dear Sir" and "Sincerely Yours?"

Now, if you will just watch me, Ann . . .

It says, "To lose 10 pounds . . cut off your head."

Oops! Somebody goofed.

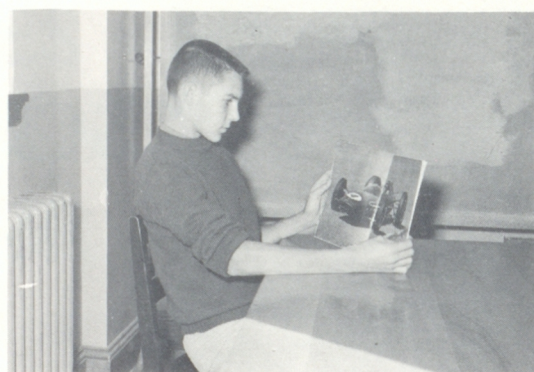

Only sneakers allowed on the gym floor.

WE HAVE MADE

We were once 97 pound weaklings.

Sigh! If only it were mine!

OF CLASSMATES

Anything for you, Mr. Brown.

You think we didn't make the varsity?

Ooh! Have I a headache!

Yea, Rah, Rah, St. Louis Hawks!!

The artist at work.

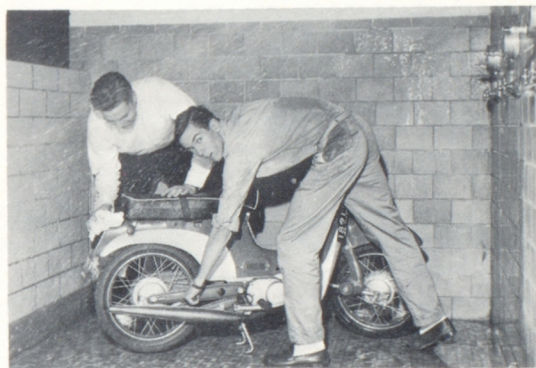

Never let your hair grow long!

LIFELONG FRIENDS

Thank goodness Thanksgiving is but once a year!

Always a clean cycle!

DEAR AND TRUE

But I wanted a "banana" split!

We're only posing!

Now I know it's in here somewhere!

—Proverbs XXIV

A black and white line drawing of various objects, including a long pole, a large ball, a small boat, and a bundle of sticks, arranged on a flat surface. The drawing is a sketch, likely a study for a larger work. The objects are arranged in a somewhat chaotic but organized manner. A long pole with a textured, possibly woven, section near the top leans diagonally across the upper half of the frame. Below it, a large, round, textured ball sits on the ground. To the left of the ball is a small, simple boat with a pointed prow. To the right of the ball is a small, rectangular object, possibly a box or a piece of equipment. Further right is another smaller, round object. In the foreground, a bundle of long, thin sticks or reeds is fanned out. To the right of the bundle is a long, cylindrical object, possibly a drum or a large container, with a small, round object attached to its side. The ground is represented by simple horizontal lines, and the background is plain. The overall style is that of a preliminary sketch or a study for a larger work.

The doors to our future are open. Before us lies a world of opportunity. We must make the most of this world and seek to lead good lives. We must be courageous and face this uncertain future with an industrious spirit and optimistic nature. We shall be confronted with difficult decisions, and we shall face trying situations. We shall make mistakes, and we shall succeed. We shall learn in this new world. We shall learn, as we have learned. We must face the future with a bright outlook, for we pass through these doors but once.
